9. MISCELLANEOUS:

Decisions of the U Card Office and Coca-Cola concerning any and all matters with respect to contests shall be final.

Coca-Cola and the U Card Office reserve the right to change its contest rules, including these standard terms and conditions, without notice. These standard terms and conditions may be changed or supplemented by contest-specific rules. If there’s a discrepancy between these standard terms and conditions and any contest-specific rules that we may develop, the contest-specific rules shall control.

The U Card Office and Coca-Cola reserve the right to change the prize values at any time, or to substitute prizes of comparable value.

All contests void where prohibited or otherwise restricted by law.

Prizes are not transferable or exchangeable, and must be taken in their entirety. The U Card Office and Coca-Cola are not responsible for printing errors in the contest materials, these rules, or any contest-specific rules that we may implement. By entering our contests, each contestant agrees to be bound by, and comply with, all official rules governing the contest, including these standards terms and conditions or any contest-specific rules we may implement. Some contest prizes may be shared by the winner, or allow someone to accompany or share in the prize with the winner. A pair of airline tickets would be an example of this. For such prizes, by accompanying a winner or sharing in the prize with a winner, any winner's guest(s) or accompanying party(ies) agree(s) to be bound by all official rules governing the contest, including these standards terms and conditions or any contest-specific rules we may implement.
